

The Association of Catholic Women

ART AND MUSIC in R.E.
A Study Day

for Teachers at Catholic Primary Schools
March 25th 2010

at The Monckton Room, the Church of Our Most Holy Redeemer and St. Thomas More, Cheyne Row, London SW3

- 12.15pm: Lunch
- 1.00pm: Teaching Christ through Art - Presentation by Dr Lionel Gracey
- 2.15pm: Tea
- 2.45pm: Learning Gregorian Chant - Workshop with Jeremy de Satgé
- 4.00pm MASS – at which we will sing some of the chant learned during the afternoon

Open to all teachers of primary-school age children. There is no charge for this day.

Dr. Lionel Gracey graduated in medicine at Cambridge University, and completed postgraduate studies at Harvard. He was Consultant Surgeon to the Royal Free Hospital, University of London, from 1966-91. Following retirement, he obtained a pontifical degree in theology from the Maryvale Institute, Birmingham, where he is currently a Lecturer in Religious Art.

Jeremy de Satgé had an early musical training as a chorister in Sheffield Cathedral Choir. Later, he sang bass in Clifton Cathedral Choir and decided to concentrate his efforts on music full time, enrolling at Trinity College of Music, London graduating in 1987 with a Singing (with teaching) Licentiate Diploma (LTCL) and the Fellowship Diploma (FTCL) in singing performance.

This Study day is aimed at teachers in Catholic primary schools, but we have a limited number of places available for others, e.g. leaders of children’s liturgy groups, First Communion classes etc. Contact us!

For more information on the Association of Catholic Women, visit our website:
www.associationofcatholicwomen.co.uk

Holy Redeemer Church: Sloane Square tube station, buses 11, 19, or 22 along the King’s Road.

To book in, use the form below, or simply send us an email: auntiejoanna@yahoo.co.uk

To: ACW Study Day, 22 Surbiton Hill Park, Surbiton, Surrey KT5 8ET
YES, I want to attend the Study Day at The Monckton Room on March 25th 2010

Name (caps please).....

School.....

email/tel no.....