

The Association of Catholic Women

www.associationofcatholicwomen.co.uk

SPONSORS A Study Day on The Eucharist and The School and Parish Community 7th February 2012

To be held at Coloma Convent Girls' School, Croydon

- 12.15pm Lunch
- 1.00pm Learning Gregorian Chant - Workshop with Jeremy de Satgé
- 2.15pm Tea
- 2.45pm The Eucharist and the school and parish community: Father James Clark
- 4.00pm MASS – at which we will sing some of the chant learned during the afternoon

The cost of the day is £20 which includes lunch, tea, and workshop materials.

LEARNING GREGORIAN CHANT

Children can benefit from the relaxation and peace that chant brings

Jeremy de Satgé is a singer, liturgical music publisher, composer and choral director

THE EUCHARIST: HEART OF THE CATHOLIC PARISH AND SCHOOL

Father James Clark is Chaplain at the John Fisher School

This Study Day is organised by the Association of Catholic Women and follows our popular Study Days on Art and Music. It is open to teachers in Catholic primary and secondary schools, leaders of children's liturgy groups, and all who work with young people in Catholic parishes and organisations.

We are grateful to the Headmistress and Governors of Coloma for welcoming us to the school for this study day.

-----
Please complete this and return it, by email to: ACorish@coloma.croydon.sch.uk or by post to:
Andrew Corish, ACW Study Day, Coloma Convent Girls School, Upper Shirley Road CROYDON
CR9 5AS

YES, I want to attend the Study Day at on Feb 7th 2012

Name (caps please) .....

School or parish .....

email/tel no .....