

Track 1 & Track 22 Lead kindly light Hymn

Lead kindly light, amid the encircling gloom, Lead thou me on; The night is dark, and I am far from home, Lead thou me on. Keep thou my feet; I do not ask to see the distant scene; One step enough for me.	I was not ever thus, nor prayed that thou shouldst lead me on; I loved to choose and see my path; But now lead thou me on. I loved the garish day, and spite of fears, Pride ruled my will: Remember not past years.	So long thy power hath blessed me, sure it still will lead me on; O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent, till the night is gone. And with the morn those angel faces smile, Which I have loved long since, and lost awhile.

Track 3 Track 3 Let us arise and watch by night Hymn for Sunday Matins (Nocte surgentes)

Let us arise and watch by night, and meditate always; And chant, as in our maker's sight united hymns of praise.	So, singing with the saints in bliss, With them we might attain Life everlasting after this And heaven for earthly pain.

Track 5 Now that the daystar glimmers bright Hymn for Prime (Jam lucis orto sidere)

Now that the daystar glimmers bright, We suppliantly pray, That he, the uncreated light, May guide us on our way.	And while the hours in order flow, O Christ securely fence Our gates, beleaguered by the foe The gate of every sense.	And, lest the flesh in its excess, Should lord it o'er the soul, Let taming abstinence repress The rebel and control.
No sinful word, no deed of wrong, nor thoughts that idly rove, But simple truth be on our tongue, And in our hearts be love.	And grant that to thine honour Lord, Our daily toil may tend; That we begin it at thy word, And in thy blessing end.	To God the Father glory be, And to his only Son, And to the Spirit, one and three, While endless ages run.

Track 7 Pater Noster (Our Father) sung in background

Pater noster, qui es in caelis: sanctificetur Nomen Tuum; adveniat Regnum Tuum; fiat voluntas Tua, sicut in caelo, et in terra. Panem nostrum cotidianum da nobis hodie; et dimitte nobis debita nostra, Sicut et nos dimittimus debitoribus nostris; et ne nos inducas in tentationem; sed libera nos a Malo.	Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Track 8 Come, Holy Ghost, who ever one Hymn for Tierce (Nunc Sancte Nobis Spiritus)

Come Holy Ghost, who ever one Reigns with the Father and the Son, It is the hour our souls possess With thy full flood of holiness.	Let flesh and heart and lips and mind Sound forth our witness to mankind; And love light up our mortal frame, Till others catch the living flame.	Now to the Father, to the Son, And the spirit, three in one, Be praise and thanks and glory given By men on earth, by saints in heaven.

Track 10 Firmly, I believe and truly Hymn from Dream of Gerontius

Firmly I believe and truly God is three and God is One; And I next acknowledge duly Manhood taken by the Son.	Simply to his grace and wholly Light and life and strength belong, And I love supremely, solely, Him the holy, him the strong.	Adoration ay be given, With and through the angelic host, To the God of earth and heaven, Father, Son and Holy Ghost.
And I trust and hope most fully In that manhood crucified; And each thought and deed unruly, Do to death as he has died.	And I hold in veneration For the love of him alone, Holy Church as his creation And her teachings as his own.

Track 12 O God who cannot change Hymn for Sext (Rector potens, verax Deus)

O God who cannot change nor fail, Guiding the hours as they roll by, Brightening with beams the morning pale, And burning in the midday sky.	Quench thou the fires of hate and strife, The wasting fever of the heart; From perils guard our feeble life, And to ourselves thy peace impart.	Grant this O Father, only Son, And Holy Spirit God of grace, To whom all glory, three in one, Be given in every time and space.

Father of lights by whom each day	Hear lest the whelming weight of crime	Grant this O Father, only Son,

Who when the heavens were made did	Lest thoughts and schemes of sense and	To whom all worship shall be done
lay	time	In every time and place. Amen.
Their rudiments in light.	Earn us a sinner's due.

Thou who did bind and blend in one	So may we knock at heaven's door,

gone,	Guarded without and within.
And lawlessness and strife prevail.

Soul of Christ, be my sanctification;	Passion of Christ, my comfort be;	Guard me, should the foe assail me;
Body of Christ, be my salvation;	O good Jesu, listen to me;	Call me when my life shall fail me;
Blood of Christ, fill all my veins;	In Thy wounds I fain would hide;	Bid me come to Thee above, stains;		World without end. Amen.

Track 31 Praise to the holiest in the height Hymn from Dream of Gerontius

Praise to the Holiest in the height, And in the depth be praise; In all his words most wonderful, Most sure in all his ways. Praise to the Holiest in the height, And in the depth be praise; In all his words most wonderful, Most sure in all his ways.

O loving wisdom of our God! When all was sin and shame, A second Adam to the fight And to the rescue came.	O generous love! that he, who smote In man for man the foe, The double agony in man For man to undergo.

O wisest Love that flesh and blood, Which did in Adam fail, Should strive afresh against the foe, Should strive and should prevail.	And in the garden secretly, And on the Cross on high, Should teach his brethren, and inspire To suffer and to die.
